

west country
investments

Buying and selling properties throughout England, Scotland & Wales

Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarm

For your safety, a smoke alarm is located on each storey of your home.

If any room in your home has a solid-fuel appliance a carbon monoxide alarm will also have been provided in that room.

As a tenant, you are responsible for testing the alarms during the course of your tenancy and reporting any defects to the landlord, who will then arrange repair or replacement.